Conditions of re-transfer to the Colours.

1. Reservists will not be required to refund the gratuity issued to them on transfer to the reserve, and each will receive a free kit.
2. They will rejoin their own regiment, and, if the officer commanding the regiment approves, in the rank which they held on transfer to the reserve.
3. If serving abroad on completing seven years' service with the colours, they will be liable to be retained with the colours for a further period not exceeding one year.
4. They will resume the good-conduct pay and badges, if any, which they held on transfer to the reserve.
5. Service in the reserve will not reckon towards the grant or restoration of good-conduct pay, but will reckon as "qualifying service" towards fixing the rate of pension on discharge.
6. Men rejoining under this order will, on discharge or re-transfer to the reserve, be entitled to deferred pay (subject to the usual conditions of issue) for the whole period of their service.
7. The officer commanding the regiment will exercise his own discretion in refusing to re-admit men whose previous characters have not been good.
8. Men who have been more than two years in the reserve will not be permitted to rejoin the colours.

If passed as medically fit for service, the man will be furnished with a travelling warrant to London, and directed to report himself to the officer commanding, by whom he will be posted to the battalion in which he is to serve.
11. A man found medically unfit will receive a day's pay and a travelling warrant back to his place of residence.
12. The officer commanding will arrange for the medical examination of men who apply personally, and proceed with the re-transfer as directed above.
13. On rejoining the colours an entry as follows will be made in the man's record of service :—
"Rejoined the colours under Army Order 59 of 1897."
14. Nominal lists of the men permitted to rejoin will be furnished to the War Office every Saturday until further orders.

Extension of Service.

15. Men now serving whose three years' period of service with the colours expires between the 1st May, 1897, and the 1st October, 1897, will receive a bounty of 2*l.* if they extend to complete seven years' service with the colours, but in that case they will be liable to serve for the extra year if abroad at the termination of their seven years' service.

A.O. 59.—Grenadier Guards — Re-transfer of Reservists to the Colours and Extension of Service.

Permission will be given to a limited number of men belonging to the reserve of the Grenadier Guards (Sec. B of the 1st Class Army Reserve), who have been transferred to the reserve after three years' service, to rejoin the colours to complete seven years' service from the date of attestation, subject to the under-mentioned conditions, viz. :—

Conditions of re-transfer to the Colours.

1. Reservists will not be required to refund the gratuity issued to them on transfer to the reserve, and each will receive a free kit.
2. They will rejoin their own regiment, and, if the officer commanding the regiment approves, in the rank which they held on transfer to the reserve.
3. If serving abroad on completing seven years' service with the colours, they will be liable to be retained with the colours for a further period not exceeding one year.
4. They will resume the good-conduct pay and badges, if any, which they held on transfer to the reserve.
5. Service in the reserve will not reckon towards the grant or restoration of good-conduct pay, but will reckon as "qualifying service" towards fixing the rate of pension on discharge.
6. Men rejoining under this order will, on discharge or re-transfer to the reserve, be entitled to deferred pay (subject to the usual conditions of issue) for the whole period of their service.
7. The officer commanding the regiment will exercise his own discretion in refusing to re-admit men whose previous characters have not been good.
8. Men who have been more than two years in the reserve will not be permitted to rejoin the colours.
9. Married men may rejoin within such limits as the officer commanding considers desirable.

Procedure on re-transfer to the Colours.

10. Applications to rejoin will be made either personally or by letter to the officer commanding Grenadier Guards, Horse Guards, Whitehall, London, S.W., who, in the event of the application being entertained, will, in the case of men who apply by letter, send to the applicant a travelling warrant to the head-quarters of the nearest regimental district (or town where a recruiting staff officer is stationed) for the purpose of medical examination. If passed as medically fit for service, the man will be furnished with a travelling warrant to London, and directed to report himself to the officer commanding, by whom he will be posted to the battalion in which he is to serve.

11. A man found medically unfit will receive a day's pay and a travelling warrant back to his place of residence.

12. The officer commanding will arrange for the medical examination of men who apply personally, and proceed with the re-transfer as directed above.

13. On rejoining the colours an entry as follows will be made in the man's record of service :—

"Rejoined the colours under Army Order 59 of 1897."

14. Nominal lists of the men permitted to rejoin will be furnished to the War Office every Saturday until further orders.

Extension of Service.

15. Men now serving whose three years' period of service with the colours expires between the 1st May, 1897, and the 1st October, 1897, will receive a bounty of 2l. if they extend to complete seven years' service with the colours, but in that case they will be liable to serve for the extra year if abroad at the termination of their seven years' service.

16. These instructions will remain in force until the 1st October, 1897, unless otherwise ordered.

Any supplies obtained on payment beyond this quantity will be paid for at Vocabulary rates.

The above reduction is made in order that the cost of extra target practice with cordite ball .303 ammunition may not be unduly high as compared with that formerly carried out with Martini-Henry arms.

In every case the probable numbers that would attend, and the special fares agreed to for the return journey, will be stated.

(b.) Control of Expenditure.

The statements of accounts of Volunteer corps for the year ended 31st March, 1896, having been examined and passed and the issue of the extra half grants, authorised by para. 1 of Army Order 76 of 1896, having been made, the Regulations for the Volunteer Force, 1896, will be amended as follows, with a view to insuring that, in future, the annual expenditure of any corps shall not exceed its income:—

1. The following will be inserted after para. 467:—

467A. When it is proposed to obtain a loan, otherwise than from the Public Loan Commissioners, extending beyond the financial year, a statement will be forwarded to the War Office showing the arrangements proposed for paying it off, whether by establishing a sinking fund for the purpose or otherwise.

2. The following will be substituted for para. 613A :—

Care, cleaning, and repair of arms.

Providing and maintaining ranges.

Cost of supplying ammunition, clothing equipment and accoutrements, engineer stores, stationery, and postage.

Travelling expenses to and from inspections, battalion drills, ranges, &c.

Repayment of, and interest on, loans.

Miscellaneous regimental establishments.

Horsing batteries of position artillery and field companies of Royal Engineers.

Expenses of drilling with guns of modern armament at works of defence.

Camp expenses, including rations and general expenses, and railway and transport expenses.

Expenditure on the following services will also be allowed if, after the above charges have been provided for, such expenditure will not lead to the income for the year being exceeded (see para. 613AA) :—

Payments to men in camp.

Band expenses not to exceed 7½ per cent. of the efficiency and proficiency grants.

Prizes not to exceed 5 per cent. of the efficiency and proficiency grants.

3. The following will be inserted after para. 613A :—

613AA. The ordinary expenditure of a Volunteer corps must not exceed its income for the year, unless the deficiency can be immediately met from private funds. When extraordinary expenditure is contemplated the sanction of the Secretary of State must first be obtained. In applying for such sanction the manner in which it is proposed to pay off the liability must be clearly stated.

YEOMANRY CAVALRY REGULATIONS*.

(See also Army Order 62.)

A.O. 72.—Permanent Duty—Course of Instruction.

1. The following will be the course of instruction for regiments of Yeomanry Cavalry when assembled for permanent duty under para. 102 of the Regulations for the Yeomanry Cavalry, 1894.

Marching day.

Morning.—Elementary troop and squadron drill, Cavalry Drill, Vol. II., Part I., Sections 7 to 22 (excluding Section 14), for 4 hours, mounted.

Afternoon.—Dismounted sword and carbine exercises and the training in dismounted work as laid down in Cavalry Drill, Vol. II., Part I., latter part of Section 17, "Dismounted Men," and Part II., Section 38.

2nd working day.

Elementary troop and squadron drill, 2 hours. Regimental drill, 3 hours.

3rd working day.

Outpost and reconnaissance.

4th working day.

Squadron drill, 2 hours. Regimental drill, 3 hours.

5th working day.

Inspection in squadron drill, outpost, and reconnaissance.

Marching day.

2. In the event of regiments electing to take advantage of para. 114 of the Regulations for the Yeomanry Cavalry, 1894, the two days therein referred to will be devoted entirely to elementary troop, squadron, and dismounted drill.

3. The regimental drills are to include the practice of the regiment in Cavalry Drill, Vol. II., Part I., latter part of Section 17, and Part II., Section 38.

4. Too much time must not be devoted to sword exercise, but the men should be instructed to cut strong and deliver their points well out.

5. Difficult and complicated manœuvres in regimental drill are on no account to be attempted; all that are necessary will be found in Cavalry Drill, Vol. II., Part I., Sections 25 and 26, omitting all moves from half column and echelon.

6. When regiments of Yeomanry Cavalry are brigaded only the most simple movements are to be performed, viz., those necessary for rendezvous formation and deployments.

7. As the United Kingdom is probably the only country in which regiments of Yeomanry Cavalry would be called on to meet an enemy, it must be borne in mind that the carbine is the weapon upon which most reliance must be placed. Dismounted work must therefore receive the greatest attention, and the necessity for proficiency with the carbine, and strict attention to fire discipline, cannot be too strongly impressed on all ranks.

8. Positions would have to be held with dismounted fire, and it is most essential that all Yeomen should have a certain knowledge of how to strengthen points of defence, such as bridges, farm buildings, cross-roads, &c.

9. The Regulations for the Yeomanry Cavalry will be amended accordingly in the forthcoming edition.

* Issued as a Special Army Order on 22nd April 1897.
